REPORT ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Title of the Programme – Use of Social Media to Help Students

Date of conducting the Programme – 05th January 2019

No. of Participants – 20 faculty members

The IQAC conducted the FDP to help the faculty members to adapt themselves to the contemporary communication channels so that they can fulfil their academic as well as extended responsibilities towards their students and also showcase the various activities undertaken by the college to the whole world.

The FDP was inaugurated by the Principal-in-charge Dr. Tripti Watwe who in her inaugural speech encouraged the faculty members to effectively use social media platforms for the benefit of the students. The resource person of the FDP was Mr. Sanjib Bhoumik, Computer Professional. The resource person introduced the faculty members to a number of social media platforms that can be used by them. He also explained how to effectively and safely use these social media platforms. The whole session was a very interactive one and the faculty members cleared their doubts from the resource person.

The FDP concluded with the vote of thanks by the IQAC Coordinator of the college.
